You might not cook all day, but we do!

We believe that there is no simpler form of entertainment than good food, drink, music, conversation and friends. Start with high quality ingredients; add passion, integrity and technique...and friendship will endure. Fresh baked breads, cured meats, scratch sauces and dressings, if we can make it here we do. We strive to offer something for everyone; to bring people together with food and drink. Enjoy an Irish favorite or one of your favorites and let us exceed your expectations with food that is simply good. Slainte!
